

You are working at an English nursery school and have recently started the project “Tell me a story and show me the world”. You have arranged to visit the local library every Wednesday afternoon with your group of children to raise their interest in books. You need parents to accompany you and work with the children. Write a letter to the parents to ask for their support.

In your letter you should:

- give reasons why good reading skills are important
- point out how the parents can support the children at the library
- convince the parents that they will benefit from joining your project

Write around 250 words.
