

You work for the campsite Eden in a nature resort in Northern Italy. The campsite is popular with international hikers, horseback riders, and cyclists. The local government wants to use a part of the nature resort to build a shopping center next to Eden. Eden has decided to inform their customers about these plans in their next monthly multi-lingual newsletter. You have been asked to write the English version of it.

In your email you should:

- describe the latest improvements made to the campsite
- specify the changes a shopping center would bring about
- persuade the readers to help you protect the nature resort

Write around 250 words.
