National Waiters' Day

by Ed Parker

January 9

Waiting (or waitressing) often has a bad reputation. We really need to change this and show that it is a skilled profession with interesting career opportunities.

I propose we introduce a day of celebration – National Waiters' Day – to show and tell the public all about the profession.

What do you think?

You have decided to comment on this blog post. In your blog comment you should:

- analyse why the waiting profession sometimes has a bad reputation
- discuss the professional skills necessary for the waiting profession
- suggest possible activities for National Waiters' Day
