

As a HTL student you have had to do at least two work placements within the last 5 years. One of the companies you worked for wants you to write an article on your work placement for the English edition of their magazine.

In your article you should:

- outline your role in the company
- consider to what extent the work you did was relevant to your school work
- suggest what your company can do to improve future trainee placements

Give your article a title. Write around 300 words.
