

An international magazine has started a programme for schools.

Learn from those who “have made it”!

In our experts-to-schools programme we pay for successful experts in many fields to talk to the students of your school.

Apply to experts_to_schools@iht.co.uk and we organize the rest.

You have decided to write an email to apply for an expert to come to your school.

You should:

- argue why they should choose your school for the programme
- explain what kind of expert the students would be interested in
- outline what the students would gain from this programme

Write around 250 words.
